Receipt Reading Guidance

(Stores listed in alphabetical order)

MINNESOTA WIC

Women, Infants & Children Nutrition Program

Updated 2/11/2020

Definitions and Notes

Definitions:

Balance Inquiry – a slip listing the available benefits and expiration date that can be printed at any cash register that transacts WIC cards.

Beginning Balance - Benefits at the start of the transaction

Midpoint Receipt – Prints after the items have been totaled and the participant swipes the card and enters the PIN. Shows the beginning balance and the items that the WIC card will pay for.May sometimes be referred to as the "confirmation receipt."

Ending Balance – Remaining available benefits after the WIC transaction has been completed.

Final Receipt – Shows all items purchased, including WIC and non-WIC foods, any details/ incentives applied to the purchase, and the methods of payment. May also show other WIC receipts.

Notes:

Point of Sale Systems and WIC receipts vary from chain to chain and system to system. This document shows four common examples: two chain systems and two independent systems.

Target stores have a printed balance inquiry and beginning balance but the PIN pad shows which items the WIC card will pay for (rather than a printed midpoint receipt).
