X-ray Equipment Disposal

There are many ways to dispose of old or unused x-ray equipment, such as selling, recycling, or donating it.

Disposing Equipment

To dispose of x-ray equipment, please contact a service provider. There is a list of service providers in your area on our website at www.health.state.mn.us/xray, click on Service Provider.

Recycling Equipment

If you are interested in recycling used x-ray film, transformers, lead aprons/gloves, mercury, or silver, we have a list of businesses that offer these services on our website at www.health.state.mn.us/xray, right hand menu bar.

Donating Equipment

If you are interested in donating your x-ray equipment to a nonprofit organization, here is a list of organizations that we are aware of.
