

A hungry baby needs to eat anytime, anywhere.

In Minnesota, you may breastfeed your baby anywhere!

If you want more privacy at the State Fair or need a place to pump, try these locations for 2018:

myTalk 107.1 radio Lactation Station, sponsored by MN WIC, on Underwood Street between Wright and Randall Avenues, is air conditioned, with comfortable chairs and outlets. Accommodates up to 10 women at a time. Open 9 a.m. - 8 p.m.

TPT | twin cities PBS, outside of the 4H building at street level on Cosgrove Street, has an area for nursing.

Health Fair 11, on Dan Patch Avenue between Cooper Street and Underwood Street, has two private pods located inside their building, each with a chair, table and electric access. Open 9 a.m. - 9 p.m.

Care & Assistance, at the south of West End Market and north of Mighty Midway on West Dan Patch Avenue, is air conditioned, has four private rooms and a semi-private area for up to four women, outlets and changing tables. Open 8 a.m. - 11 p.m.
