Re: Letter of Warning

Dear Ms. Fiala

The Minnesota Department of Health has sufficient information to determine that Alliance Assisted Living Services located in Eagan, MN is in violation following provisions of MN Statute 144G:

1. Minnesota Statutes 144G.02, Subdivision 1. Protected title; restriction on use.

No person or entity may use the phrase "assisted living," whether alone or in combination with other words and whether orally or in writing, to advertise, market, or otherwise describe, offer, or promote itself, or any housing, service, service package, or program that it provides within this state, unless the person or entity is a housing with services establishment that meets the requirements of this chapter, or is a person or entity that provides some or all components of assisted living that meet the requirements of this chapter. A person or entity entitled to use the phrase "assisted living" shall use the phrase only in the context of its participation in assisted living that meets the requirements of this chapter. A housing with services establishment offering or providing assisted living that is not made available to residents in all of its housing units shall identify the number or location of the units in which assisted living is available, and may not use the term "assisted living" in the name of the establishment registered with the commissioner under chapter 144D, or in the name the establishment uses to identify itself to residents or the public.

Alliance Assisted Living Services is using the phrase "assisted living" in their business name. By using the phrase "assisted living", Alliance Assisted Living Services will need to comply with Minnesota Statutes Chapter 144G.

To respond to this Letter of Warning please complete the enclosed form which includes a brief statement of actions taken to address the failure(s) to meet requirements noted above, and an attestation statement concerning compliance with MN Statute 144G. The form should be signed by an individual authorized to sign on behalf of the establishment.

This information must be submitted to the Minnesota Department of Health within 30 days of receipt of this letter. If you do not respond to this Letter of Warning, the Minnesota Department
