

2010 Minnesota Flex Program Grant Awards

	City	Awardee	Award	Brief Summary
1	Ada	Bridges Medical Center	$12,250	Provide in-house ACLS and PALS training program by training the trainers, and making the course available to other regional hospital personnel, as well as Bridges Medical Center personnel
2	Dawson	Johnson Memorial Health Services	$25,000	Implement e-Emergency system in ER
3	Jackson	Sanford Jackson Medical Center	$5,000	Provide training to emergency room staff and City of Jackson EMTs and First Responders using Hennepin Technical College Advanced Center for Emergency Services Mobile Emergency Care Simulation Unit
4	Glenwood	Glacial Ridge Hospital District	$9,100	Implement EMR in ambulances; recruit a paramedic
5	Graceville	Graceville Health Center	$24,679	Implement electronic medical records
6	New Ulm	New Ulm Medical Center	$15,000	Based on community health screenings from 2009, deliver community interventions to support both healthy and obese residents in making positive life style changes as part of the Heart of New Ulm Project
7	Onamia	Mille Lacs Health System	$24,679	Establish e-prescribing in the emergency department
8	Ortonville	Ortonville Area Health Services	$18,750	Improve access to emergency care using remote presence technology and providing a sustainable emergency services model for other Minnesota rural hospitals
9	Thief River Falls	Thief River Falls Ambulance	$24,667	Promote "Heart to Heart" program through community education and community placement of AEDs
10	Tracy	Sanford Tracy Medical Center	$16,061	Lead the development of a Rural Stroke Improvement Group involving other area hospitals
11	Wabasha	St. Elizabeth's Hospital	$19,679	Replace and upgrade pharmacy electronic information as part of facility wide EMR conversion
12	Wadena	Tri-County Community Health	$22,000	Provide Prehospital Trauma Life Support (PHTLS), Trauma Nursing Core Course (TNCC), and Emergency Nursing Pediatric Course (ENPC) to Tri-County Community Health Services and Tri-County Hospital personnel.
13	Warren	North Valley Health Center	$18,135	Implement an advanced hazardous material (HAZMAT) life support course for area medical and fire and rescue personnel
Total			$235,000	