

REACH—Regional Extension Assistance Center for HIT

Paul Kleeberg, M.D.
Clinical Director
Regional Extension Assistance Center for HIT (REACH)

Minnesota e-Health Summit 2010
June 17th 2010

REACH - Achieving meaningful use of your EHR

Regional Extension Assistance Center for HIT (REACH)

- Project of Key Health Alliance
 - Stratis Health
 - National Rural Health Resource Center
 - The College of St. Scholastica
- Working in close cooperation with:
 - North Dakota Health Care Review, Inc.
 - University of ND, Center for Rural Health

REACH - Achieving meaningful use of your EHR

2

Federally Subsidized Services

- Providers without an EHR or with an EHR who wish to achieve meaningful use and beyond
- Greatest discount for primary care providers
- Subsidized services also available for multispecialty clinics with primary care providers
- Nonprofit rates available for specialty clinics and other settings of care
- Small and Critical Access Hospital funding pending

REACH - Achieving meaningful use of your EHR

3

REACH Approach

- EHR Roadmap guides consultation process
- Focus on organizational change required for success
- Provide tools to support your HIT sustainability

REACH - Achieving meaningful use of your EHR

4

REACH Services

- Readiness assessments
- Practice and workflow redesign
- Assistance in selecting a certified EHR product
- Vendor contracting

REACH - Achieving meaningful use of your EHR

5

REACH Services (cont.)

- Process for EHR project management
- EHR optimization and meaningful use
- Technical reporting
- Privacy and security best practices for your EHR
- Functional interoperability and HIE

REACH - Achieving meaningful use of your EHR

6

Meaningful Use and Beyond

- Helping you achieve 2011 criteria for meaningful use and preparing you for 2013 and 2015 criteria
- Meaningful use criteria are based on National Priorities Partnership goals for transforming America's Healthcare
- Subsidized services for activities that help you achieve these goals

REACH - Achieving meaningful use of your EHR

7

REACH Discounted Services

- Greatest discounts on REACH services for early registrants
- Must agree to be certified for meaningful use by January 2012
- Become eligible for earliest Medicare and Medicaid incentive payments

REACH - Achieving meaningful use of your EHR

8

Register Now

- Register at www.khaREACH.org/ehrs/register
- No commitment with registration
- After registration, we call to understand your situation and see what subsidies we can bring to you
- Design a custom work plan to fit your needs
- Staff of consultants and subject matter experts with experience to meet your needs

More Information

- Join one of our info calls
- Register or learn more
 - <http://khaREACH.org>
 - 877-331-8783, ext. 222

Key Health Alliance—Stratis Health, National Rural Health Resource Center, and The College of St. Scholastica.

www.khaREACH.org
(877) 331-8783 ext. 222

REACH is a project federally funded through the Office of the National Coordinator, Department of Health and Human Services (grant number EP-HIT-09-003).