4. Victimization of Persons with Traumatic Brain Injury or Other Disabilities: A Fact Sheet for Professionals

A new fact sheet, Victimization of Persons with Traumatic Brain Injury or Other Disabilities, is now available on the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Victimization can include physical violence, sexual violence, psychological or emotional abuse, and neglect, and research indicates that persons with disabilities are at an increased risk for victimization. This fact sheet was developed for professionals to provide a comprehensive overview of the topic of victimization of persons with traumatic brain injury or other disabilities and to raise awareness about this serious and preventable public health problem.

5. Focus on Outreach to Teens and Young Adults

The April VAWA E-Newsletter highlights resources on outreach to teens and young adults to prevent sexual and domestic violence. New materials address prevention program theory, recommended policy and protocol guidelines, model teen outreach initiatives, evaluation strategies to measure prevention approaches, and research on teen victimization.

7. Focus on Immigration and Violence Against Women

The June VAWA E-Newsletter highlights resources on the experiences of immigrant victims of violence against women and the systems that impact them. New materials discussing the multiple layers of abuse against immigrant women, effective advocacy and intervention strategies, legal protections for battered immigrants, and system responses and barriers are included. More information on the intersections between immigration and violence against women can be found in the newsletter.

8. The Links between Prostitution and Sex Trafficking: a Briefing Handbook

The Links between Prostitution and Sex Trafficking: a Briefing Handbook, is part of the joint project coordinated by European Women's Lobby (EWL) and the Coalition Against Trafficking of Women on promoting preventative measures to combat trafficking in human beings for sexual exploitation. The handbook is also available upon request at EWL secretariat. For multiple copies contact Colette De Troy, Coordinator.

9. Primer on the Male Demand for Prostitution

The Primer on the Male Demand for Prostitution was originally developed to assist European antitrafficking projects in the Baltic States in challenging the legalization and decriminalization of prostitution industries and in focusing on the demand. In this version, it has been adapted for use in a more general, international context.
