1. World Day to End Child Abuse, November 19, 2006

This Sunday, November 19, the Jacob Wetterling Foundation, Prevent Child Minnesota, Stop It Now! Minnesota, and Neighborhood House are hosting a candlelight vigil in recognition of World Day to End Child Abuse. Please join the vigil from 5:30 to 6:30 at Neighborhood House (179 Robie Street on the West Side in St. Paul) for speakers, music, and to show your commitment to acting to prevent child abuse. Dress warm, invite your family and friends, and bring a candle, lighter or flashlight to shine a light of hope for children. If you can't attend, please consider leaving your porch light on that night as a symbol of your commitment to making a difference for kids. For more information, contact Yvonne Cournoyer, (651) 644-8515, ext 121.

4. Exploring the Connections: Stalking and Sexual Assault, December 13-14, 2006

The Stalking Resource Center is presenting a conference, Exploring the Connections: Stalking and Sexual Assault, Dec 13-14, 2006, in Scottsdale, AZ.

This conference will look at the ways rapists stalk their victims before, during, and after both stranger and acquaintance sexual assaults. The premier experts in the field will present the latest research available and will work with participants in interactive sessions to address this highly prevalent, but rarely recognized, phenomenon. Confirmed presenters include:

- ▶ Dr. David Lisak, Associate Professor, University of Massachusetts at Boston
- ▶ Eugene Rugala, former Supervisory Special Agent with the FBI's Behavior Analysis Unit
- ▶ Patricia Powers, Senior Deputy Prosecuting Attorney in Yakima, Washington

Participants are responsible for making their own hotel reservations at Chaparral Suites Resort, (800) 528-1456. Registration under the room block name: the National Center for Victims of Crime. Registration cut-off date is November 21, 2006.

Further information, including registration, is available from the Stalking Resource Center.

5. Grant Opportunity

The Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, announces the Understanding Risk and Protective Factors for Sexual Violence Perpetration and the Overlap with Bullying Behavior grant.

The National Center for Injury Prevention and Control is soliciting investigator-initiated research in: Understanding Risk and Protective Factors for Sexual Violence Perpetration and the Overlap with Bully Behavior (U49 (CE07-005)). The purpose of the announcement is to solicit (U49) research applications to

1. assess the association between bullying experiences and co-occurring and subsequent sexual violence (SV) perpetration and
2. test associations between these forms of violence and potentially modifiable risk and protective factors from multiple levels of social influence (i.e., individual, family, peer, and community factors) to determine the shared and unique risk and protective factors for bullying experiences and SV perpetration.

NOTE: Bullying experiences includes being a perpetrator, victim, or bystander of bullying (see definitions below).

Co-occurring sexual violence perpetration refers to sexual violence that is perpetrated in the same time period as the bullying experiences. Subsequent sexual violence perpetration refers to sexual violence that is perpetrated in a time period after the bullying experiences. The sexual violence perpetration that is co-occurring or that happens subsequent to the bullying experiences can be perpetrated against the same person/people or against a different person/people than those who are involved in the bullying experiences. Approximately $600,000 is expected to be available. It is anticipated that two awards will be funded. Funding level will not exceed $300,000 (including both direct and indirect costs) per year.

Project period is up to three (3) years. The award mechanism is a U49 cooperative agreement

Letter of Intent Receipt Date: February 1, 2007.

Application Submission Receipt Date: April 1, 2007.

Earliest Anticipated Start Date: September 15, 2007.

DMAD's mission is to promote the positive involvement of fathers and to educate youth about responsible parenting. DMAD trains high school teens, both boys and girls, to teach a four-lesson curriculum to middle school youth. Teens can be leaders and role models in their communities through delivering this important information. We all know what the impacts on youth can be from too-early parenting and father absence. If you work with a teen youth group or teens through a school and would like to bring them to a DMAD training, contact me ASAP!!!
