

2012 by the numbers: A year in review

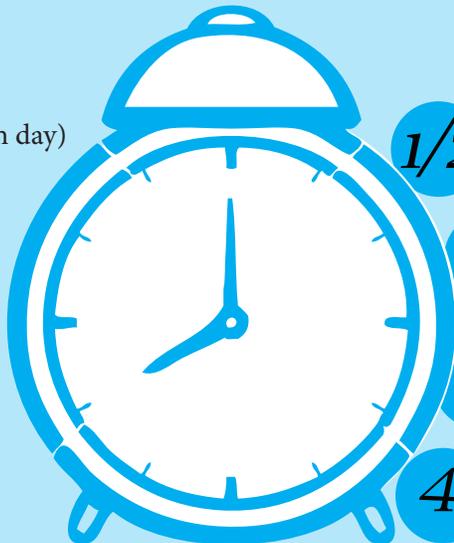

Minnesota Department of Health Infectious Disease Epidemiology, Prevention and Control Division

Every day, on average:

801 calls in 2012 (an average of 2 each day) are answered by the foodborne illness hotline.

A new syphilis case is reported every 26 hours.

A new HIV infection is diagnosed every 28 hours.

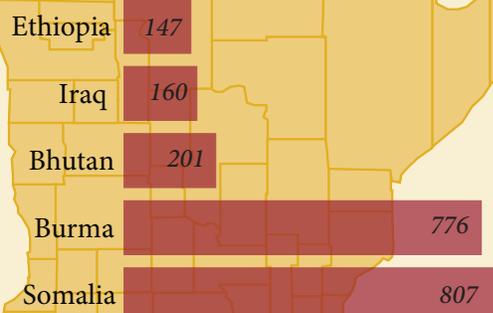

1/2 hour: A chlamydia diagnosis 18,048

2 hours: A pertussis case reported 4,485

3 hours: A gonorrhea diagnosis 3,082

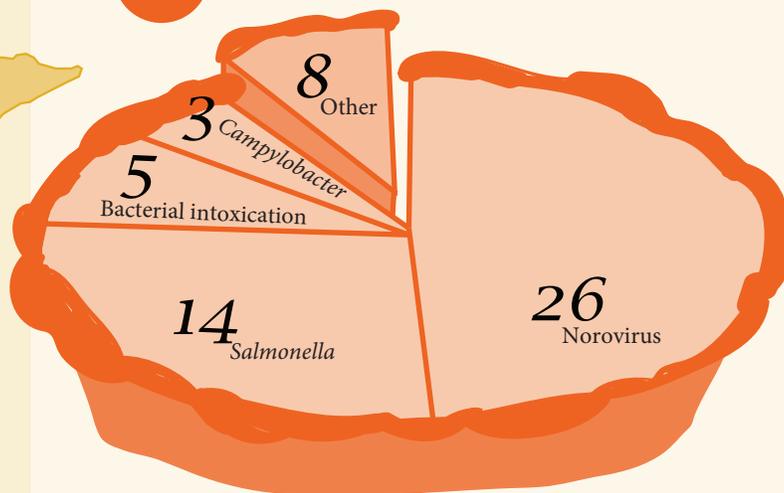

4 hours: A refugee arrives in MN 2,264

25 Top 5 countries of origin for MN refugees

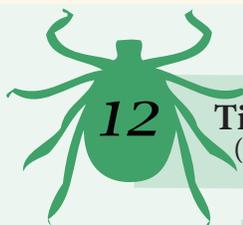

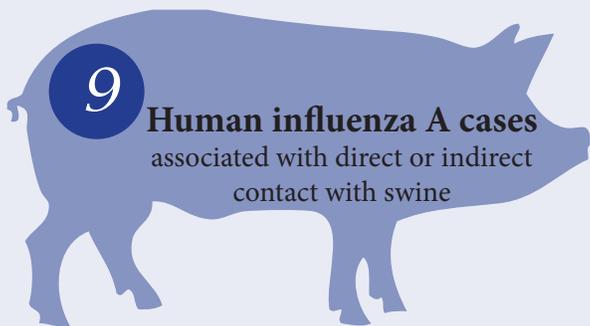

21 Counties refugees settled in across MN

144 Foodborne outbreaks investigated

9

Human influenza A cases associated with direct or indirect contact with swine

12 Tick species in MN (2 commonly feed on humans)

33

% of adult black-legged ticks and 20% of nymphs, infected with Lyme disease bacteria (based on MDH field studies)

5

different tick-borne diseases are associated with blacklegged ticks (Lyme disease, babesiosis, human anaplasmosis, one form of human ehrlichiosis, and Powassan disease)