

The Minnesota Departments of Health and Agriculture invite you to attend a free

Fun on the Farm: Agritourism Workshop

Do you own a farm with animals that also hosts farm tours for families and school groups, has a pumpkin patch or apple orchard, or other activities where the public can mingle with your animals?

That's Agritourism!

Workshop topics include:

- Best practices for human-animal contact
 - Working farm safety issues
- Food licensing and safe food handling

Owners, employees, and youth volunteers are encouraged to attend!
