

What to expect: Visiting a Mobile Vaccine Clinic (Audio Described)

TRANSCRIPT

[upbeat music]

What to expect: visiting a mobile vaccine clinic. The video opens on a metro bus wrapped in “Roll Up Your Sleeves, Minnesota” graphics. The bus is a mobile vaccine clinic. A montage of video clips previews the mobile clinic process.

[Narrator: Mobile vaccination clinics bring the COVID-19 vaccine to you and your community. This video walks you through what you can expect when you visit a mobile vaccination clinic.]

A masked greeter at a check-in table speaks to the camera.

[Greeter: Hello! Alrighty, I will get you checked in today. What is your last name?]

[Narrator: When you arrive at the mobile clinic, you’ll check in with a greeter for your vaccination appointment.]

Text appears onscreen and is read by the narrator.

[Narrator: Please let them know if you need accessibility or language accommodations.]

The camera pans showing sunny day and the mobile vaccination clinic in a parking lot.

[Narrator: Mobile vaccine clinic often have openings for walk-ins, so bring a friend!

We return to the greeter who points us in the direction of the line.

[Greeter: You are good to go, you can head over to the line.]

Two people stand in line under a tent as they wait to enter the mobile vaccine clinic.

[Narrator: Wait your turn either directly outside the bus or in the waiting area on the bus.]

We enter the mobile vaccine clinic. It is not like a regular transit bus, rows of seats have been replaced with metal cabinets and vaccine supplies. A clinician in PPE gestures for us to sit down on a chair next to them at a station.

[Narrator: When it’s your turn to be vaccinated, sit down at a vaccination station with a clinician. There are screens available if you’d like more privacy.]

[Clinician: Can you tell me your name?]

[Narrator: The clinician will go over your information with you and you can ask any questions you may have about the vaccine. The clinician will need access to your upper arm to administer the vaccine. ]

The clinician enters information into their laptop. After, they clean the camera person’s arm off-camera preparing to administer a vaccine. After, we walk through the front door of the bus into the parking lot and are greeted by masked staff.

[Narrator: Once you’re vaccinated, you’ll exit the bus.]

[Staff: Hi. Thanks so much for coming. Thanks for getting vaccinated. And now we’d like you to wait for about 15 minutes right over here in this area.]

WHAT TO EXPECT: VISITING A MOBILE VACCINE CLINIC (AUDIO DESCRIBED)

[Narrator: You'll sit in the observation area for 15 minutes. And staff will explain what to do if you're not feeling well.]

Text appears onscreen and is read by the narrator.

[Narrator: Trained staff like nurses or emergency medical technicians are on-site if you don't feel well.]

A Minnesota Department of Health sticker reading "I GOT MY SHOT" is shown onscreen.

[Narrator: After your 15 minutes are up, you are all done! Thank you for getting vaccinated.]

The camera pans up from a mobile vaccination clinic in a parking lot to a blue sky with puffy clouds. The "Roll Up Your Sleeves, Minnesota" graphic appears onscreen, along with the website URL www.health.mn.gov].

[Narrator: If you have questions about the COVID-19 vaccine, talk to your healthcare provider or visit our website.]

Minnesota Department of Health
Communications Office
PO Box 64975
St. Paul, MN 55164-0975
651-201-4989
health.communications@state.mn.us
www.health.state.mn.us

6/29/21

To obtain this information in a different format, call: 651-201-4989.