

Distribution of Blacklegged Tick Populations by County in Minnesota*

*This map shows where confirmed specimens of blacklegged ticks (deer ticks) have been reported to the Minnesota Department of Health as of July 2019. Counties classified as established had at least six ticks or two life stages recorded within a single calendar year. Counties with fewer ticks of a single life stage are classified as reported. Tick density may vary greatly between locations.

