

Positive Alternatives grantees provide clients/women with information on, referrals to, and assistance with securing necessary services to promote their having successful pregnancies and caring for their babies after birth, or in making an adoption plan.

Necessary services include, but are not limited to:

- Medical care
- Nutrition services
- Housing assistance
- Adoption services
- Education and employment assistance, including services that support the continuation and completion of high school
- Childcare assistance
- Parenting education and support services

Contact a grantee or visit the Positive Alternatives website to find out the services offered at each location.

All services are provided without cost to participants.
